

MY HOSPITALITY LIFE WORKSHOPS

Offer 1: Hotel Calamity

This sees the students working in groups and tasked with saving a financially struggling hotel. Students are asked to make decisions on advertising, restaurant menu, utilities, banking, staff morale etc they can even hire and fire staff! The game completely allows for students to have creative freedom in their decisions and really step into a leadership role. This is also a competition as each team is competing against each other to see who can make the biggest profit.

DURATION: Full version 2 hours or part version 1 hour

STUDENT NUMBERS: 20 ideal but can accommodate up to 30

STUDENT AGE: Suitable for all year groups but best for years 8+

Offer 2: Event Planning

Working in groups, students become professional events planners and are tasked with creating a business plan for a charity concert. During the workshop the students will have to create a company name/logo, decide which charity they are supporting, pick their entertainment, consider food and beverage, costings, locations, marketing materials, venue health & safety etc. At the end of the session each group will present back their business plan to the clients (a representative from My Hospitality Life and teaching staff) who will pick a winning bid.

DURATION: 2 hours (this activity can not be reduced in time)

STUDENT NUMBERS: Max 40 students per session

STUDENT AGE: Years 11+

MY HOSPITALITY LIFE SHORT INTERACTIVE GAMES

Offer 3: Frontline Hotel

This is a revenue management game run through excel; students usually work in one large group and have to decide on whether to accept or reject potential hotel guests. The game monitors the profits and occupancy so the students can see how full their hotel is and how much money they made. This highlights that hotels are big businesses making a lot of money – as many young people think there is no earning or career potential in the industry. This activity is usually used at the end of a career talk as an quick engaging activity.

DURATION: 15 minutes

STUDENT NUMBERS: Any size

STUDENT AGE: All year groups

COMING 2019!

Offer 4: ECO Hotel

This game is still in development but will involve students making sure their business is as eco-friendly as possible. This activity is expected to be 15-20 mins long. Please confirm your interest and My Hospitality Life will get in touch as soon as it has launched
